A large rectangular area containing a tracing exercise. It features a large cartoon character on the left and several rows of dashed arches on the right. The character has a round face with two solid black dots for eyes and a curved line for a smile. Its body is composed of dashed lines, including a horizontal line for the chest and several vertical lines for the legs. To the right of the character are five rows of dashed arches, each row containing ten arches. The arches are designed for tracing practice.
